Drawn & Engraved by G. Brannon.

Publd by the Engr. Wootton I.W. May 1st 1841

BLACKGANG CHINE I. W.

On the morning when the Ship CLARENDON was wrecked, (Oct. 14, 1836) she was from the West Indies, laden with Sugar & Rum;—had 16 Seamen & 11 Passengers, 24 of whom perished.—At six she struck—when such was the dreadful impetuosity of the overwhelming surge, that in about five minutes she was literally wrecked to atoms.